

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

We publish our formulae
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

THE HERALD.

Taylor Dav is building a new warehouse to store salt, lime, oils, paints, etc.

Cecil Bros., request us to say that they would like for all who are owing them to come in and pony up at once.

Sam Kash last week bought a milk cow from John Miles Wilson, of Red river, for $25. She is part Jersey and gives rich milk.

Kash & Sample, one of the firms that patronize this paper, request us to say that people who are indebted to them must pay up at once.

Kash & Sample say they do not desire to dun any of their customers, but request all delinquents to come in and settle their accounts at once.

If you have any saddles or harness that need repairing take them to S. F. Reynolds and see how neatly and cheaply he can do the job.

If farmers will make a strong solution of borax and dip their hams and shoulders in the boiling fluid, their meat will never be invaded with bugs or insects of any kind.

Oliver Kash, of Campton, who has been assisting his brother, Sam, in his store and the postoffice, will matriculate at Hazel Green Academy the first of next week.

Will Alexander, who was reported sometime since would go west to locate, has rented a farm near Neola, having abandoned the idea of trying the winds and drouths of the west.

Mrs. Lucy McGuire, of Morehead, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Q. C. Daniel, who last week returned from a visit to her parents, Elder D. G. Combs and wife, of Morehead.

J. T. Day is having a very large field plowed with a view to putting it in spring wheat. With the mill he owns every farmer would be justified in putting in a large crop of this cereal.

Curt Byrd and Miss Jennie Taylor, both of Lacy creek, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Liest Taylor and wife, on Thursday, Feb. 4, Rev. Hon Taylor performing the ceremony.

James O. Perkins will offer for sale at public outcry in the town of Hazel Green, on Saturday, Feb. 27th, a thoroughbred McDonald Chief Stallion, and farmers should be on hands to look him over.

If you want a fine razor—as good as you can buy for $2—call this at office and get one for $1. We also have a few watches, good time keepers, that can be had for $1 each. Don't wait until supply is gone.

Edgar Asburg, a young man who worked in THE HERALD office at one time and a long time at Campton, from where he went to Richmond, is now in Muskogee, Okla., where he is pressman on a daily paper.

The report comes to us that Charley Clark, of Maytown, who was reported as having pneumonia, has now developed typhoid fever and is in a critical condition. Mr. Clark's many friends, however, hope for the best.

Rev. Frank Pres Wilson, of Neola, was here Monday to return to school his son, Ghent, who had taken French leave. But whether he went home or was fleeing from parental control "Our Man About Town" did not learn.

A Cute Child.

Little Mabel Daniel, of our town, is certainly a prodigy. She is about eleven years of age and since she was five year old she has taken part in nearly every play or exhibition that has been held at Hazel Green Academy, and whatever the part she renders it to perfection. Frequently she is down for a song or recitation by herself and she is always the same self reliant little maid. Never has she faltered or taken stage fright, and being a favorite she is the pet of the town. So sweet and amiable is her disposition that little girls of her own age never envy her the honors that are bestowed upon her, but on the other hand are always ready to accord her the praise she deserves.

A Good Entertainment.

The play, "Jemima, or the Witch of Bender," the comedy which was rendered at Pearra Hall, Saturday night, proved a success in that everybody present was amused and entertained for an hour or so. The sum realized from admissions was $26 75, which is to buy new seats for the Christian church of our town. All who took part in the play had their respective parts well in hand, and it was pulled off without a hitch. Little Mabel Daniel rendered a song with piano accompaniment by Miss Poteet, and the latter executed an instrumental piece accompanied with cornet by Milo Carter.

Fire on Lacy Creek.

J. B. Hollon, of Lacy creek, had the misfortune to lose some 60,000 feet of rough lumber, estimated at about $35 per thousand, on Sunday morning or Saturday night. There was no mill or fire near the lumber, and it is almost a certainty that the fire was of incendiary origin. Indeed it is said that pine knots were found where the fire originated, and that a fire was started at another point which would have destroyed all the lumber Mr. Hollon had. So far as we know, he has no conception of who the party can be.

There is a movement on foot to have property holders of our town build concrete sidewalks. While this will do very well for the central part of the town, where the most valuable property is located, in our humble opinion a good system of plank walks would be all sufficient for the outlying part or suburbs. Concrete would perhaps last longer and render greater satisfaction, but a good plank walk would render pedestrianism much more pleasant than the mud through which we now wade in many places.

George Johnson, Esq., is trying to reorganize the Order of Red Men, which has been out of commission for the past 18 months. He already has nearly 20 members pledged, and with that number they can secure a charter. The order pays $5 a week as sick benefits, and a member can take out a policy of insurance in any amount he desires. The writer is not acquainted with the good points of the order, but is satisfied it is all right if members live up to the ritual.

The Ladies' Aid Society have very generously agreed to quilt for Mr. and Mrs. John Ward a lot of comforts and quilts to remunerate them in small degree for their severe loss of all their household goods. Other citizen of this town also donated goods to be made up, and it is hoped that every citizen will do all they can in this direction. Surely they will want to do by those people who were so unfortunate as they would wish to be done by. That is the golden rule and should be observed.

Through misinformation last week THE HERALD stated that the John Ward dwelling caught from escaping gas. The fact is there was no fire on the place, so far as known, except the burning soot near the top of the chimney, which probably caught from a wood and coal fire made the day previous. In the fire at Dr. Stamper's office there was no gas whatever, and the fire at Aunt Liza McNabb's was caused by a wood blaze and defective flue. Gas was in no wise responsible.

Jud Day, a prominent young merchant of Grassy Creek, where he is identified with the firm of J. D. Henry & Co., was in town last Thursday to have us print some stationery and also handbills announcing a cut price clearing sale. He also transacted some business at the bank.

Senator James B. McCreary has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a package of garden seeds from the agricultural department at Washington, including peas, onions, turnips, lettuce, etc.

The juries of Wolfe Circuit court were discharged last week and quite a number of misdemeanor and felony cases passed, but court held several days this week to clean up as many equity and civil cases as possible.

Tomorrow, Friday, February 12, will be celebrated throughout the United States, and more especially in the state of Kentucky, commemorative of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

THE HERALD is sorry to say that rumors are current to the effect that Judge Adams rules against Democrats in all cases where both political parties are involved, and if this be so, he has lost his prestige as a presiding officer.

Harlan McClain, a former citizen of Hazel Green, was sick in a hospital at Stillwater, Okla., recently, where he fell in love with the lady who nursed him, with the result that they were married. They will go to Fort Worth, Texas, to live.

Floyd Arnett, of Neola, went to Salyersville last week, where he received license to practice law. He has been constable and deputy sheriff, and with his experience in these two offices, he should have some practical experience in his new profession.

Tommie Daniel, of West Liberty, accompanied by a Miss McGuire, of Jackson, came in the latter part of last week, but left Monday after visiting his parents, Q. C. Daniel and wife. Miss McGuire is still here visiting the Daniel family.

J. Taylor Day last week filled his ice house with ice measuring three to four and a half inches, and had it thoroughly packed with old sawdust to preserve it. Should it keep it will be a God send to the people of our town, especially should an epidemic of sickness visit this village.

Our readers will remember that Friday, the 12th inst., is the day John M. Rose & Co., will begin their closing sale to quit business, and should avail of the opportunity to buy bargains. For particular note prices quoted elsewhere in our paper and see bills distributed about.

South Coldiron and John Oldfield, who are working at the mill of Bascom Perkins, on Grassy creek, Saturday morning last killed a snake three and a half feet long, which seems to indicate that spring weather is upon us. But when we remember that Mr. Sausage, yeleft the ground hog, came out on the 2nd and went back to his hole it leaves a doubt. So what will the weather be is still a question.

Since our last issue Sam Kash sold a yearling mule to Allison Rose, for $92.50; a yearling mule to Oliver Kash for $75, and a four-year-old work mule to Capt. W. L. Hurst, of Campton, for $110. Also, C. S. Sample sold to Charley Rose an aged mule at private price. Charley Rose bought a four-year-old mare mule from Bud Swango, of Stillwater, for $110, and sold one to Capt. Bill Hurst, of Campton, for $105.

Crockett Rose, of Lacy creek, and Miss Maude Hurst, of Stillwater, will be united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, "Little Bill" Hurst and wife, today, Dr. G. M. Center performing the ceremony. The groom is a son of our fellow county man and friend, Jeff M. Rose, and is a nice young man, while the bride is one of the prettiest girls in Wolfe county, and calculated to make him a helpmate through this vale of tears.

Lon Sherman, who was last week arraigned for trial in the Wolfe Circuit court at Campton for the killing of Islow Allen, was Saturday acquitted of the crime. It was rumored, however, that threats were made against Sherman if he continued to live in Campton. Indeed it was reported here that ere the trial was over it was said he would not live 24 hours in event of acquittal, but there is no authenticity to these rumors, and it may be a bluff game.

MURPHY FORD MINUTES.

J. S. Pieratt swapped three calves to Will Ayers for a cow.

Mrs. Malissa Creekbaum moved last week from the Cecil Hurt farm to Ezel.

Tom Lawson moved from Millard Dennis' to Bill Murphy's farm last week.

Bud Little, of Mize, has a bunch of cattle on hands for the Mt. Sterling market.

John Harvey moved from Bill Murphy's to Jeff Murphy's, on Blackwater, last week.

Milt Lykins passed through our village last Friday en route to Breathitt county on a business tour.

The poet is still using cough medicine and liniment to beat the band. The trouble is grip and then some.

The two Murphys, John and Ben, have 125 head of cattle on hands. There is no telling how many they will have by the time of the next Mt. Sterling court.

Last Saturday night a crowd of young folks, 16 couple in all, met at the home of J. S. Pieratt, and tendered a refined social to John's oldest daughter, Miss Nora. Roses and beauty sparkled there, and with their plays, music, laughter and songs the hours went merrily by. All went home delighted with the occasion.

POET.

Home-Made Fire Extinguisher.

In this day of efficient fire extinguishers no farmhouse or barn should be without such protection. It often happens that a fire is easily extinguished when it is first discovered if the means is at hand for doing the work. Here is a good formula which will prove effective: Take ten pounds of common salt and five pounds of muriate of ammonia and dissolve in four gallons of water. When dissolved bottle it and keep for an emergency. In case of a fire one or more bottles should be thrown into the flames with such force as to break them.—Ex.

Do You Get Up

With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an Execution No. 1474, directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Wolfe Circuit court, in favor of G. M. Center against E. B. Haddix and C. L. Terrell, I, or one of my deputies, will, on MONDAY, the 1st DAY OF MARCH, 1909, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., at the court house door in Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, the following property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy Plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, to-wit: A certain tract or boundary of land lying and being in Wolfe County, Ky., on the Widow Fork of Red River and bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning on a Chestnut tree near the old school house branch above the County Road running a straight line to the top of the ridge; thence with the ridge to Tennie Haddix's line to a stone; thence with her line across the valley to the top of the ridge where E. M. Walters and Thos. Walters, Jr., intersect; thence with E. M. Walters' line to a stone; thence a straight line to the forks of a small drain to a Walnut on the right of said drain; thence a straight line across the valley to the beginning. Leveled on as the property of E. B. Haddix.

Terms—Sale will be made on a credit of six months, the purchaser to execute bond, with approved security, to have the force and effect of a replevin bond. Witness my hand this 8th day of February, 1909.

JOHN W. COX,
27-3t Sheriff of Wolfe County.

JNO. M. ROSE & CO.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Sam Kash, of the firm Kash & Sample, says they are selling goods so fast and are kept so busy that they have no time to write an advertisement, and he says if they had a new ad they would have to hire another assistant for which they can not make room with the goods.
